Tennessee State Senator Janice Bowling for District 16 representing Coffee, Dekalb, Franklin, Grundy, Lincoln and Warren counties has been a great friend to the Sons of Confederate Veterans and the historical community as whole in Tennessee. Mrs. Bowling is known for being an ANTI-WOKE Legislator. She has Championed Legislation that the SCV was promoting and fighting for over the years. In the 113th Legislative Session she sponsored 64 bills and co-sponsored 110 bills (four of which were directly related to efforts by the SCV to save and preserve history). Senator Bowling continually stands her ground for citizen’s rights and for the nullification act that protects Tennessee from unlawful demands and regulations from the Federal Government.

Janice is a graduate of Auburn University with a B.S. in Special Education. She is married to Temple Bowling IV together they have two sons, a daughter and seven grandchildren. They are members of the Grace Baptist Church in Tullahoma. Senator Bowling was the 2024 Recipient of the Harry T Burn Courage in Politics Award presented by Longstreet-Zollicoffer Camp 87 at last year’s Lee-Jackson event.
