

UNDERTAKER'S LIST OF
CONFEDERATE DEAD
IN BETHEL CEMETERY
KNOXVILLE, TENNESSEE

At the end of the list of 1465 names is the notation:

“This list embraces all the ‘Confederate Dead’ at Knoxville, except what was killed at Fort Sanders, which was 105. Also 50 names unknown. Also 50 prisoners.”

(signed) James H. Renshaw, Undertaker
Knoxville, Nov. 3rd, 1871

* * * * *

Presented to Chapter 89
In Memory of Mrs. Amanda McTeer
Gift of Mrs. Earnest Briscoe

* * * * *

Compiled by
Mrs. Wilford V. Helsley
&
Mrs. Warren R. West
for
Knoxville Chapter No. 89
United Daughters of the Confederacy

Dedicated to
Miss Mamie Winstead
A Real Daughter
of
Knoxville Chapter 89, U.D.C.

Her loyalty to the Confederacy has preserved the Burial grounds for descendants of courageous soldiers
Who gave their lives serving the Southern cause, 1861-1864.

Presented by Mrs. Ernest Brisco, a niece of Mrs. Amanda McTeer, to U.D.C. Library on September 15, 1943, at a memorial held for Mrs. McTeer, who had kept this record all these past years. Record was presented to the Memorial Association by "A Rebel", by Mrs. I. H. Cox of Loudon who had 12 cousins in one Company, and in a Confederate Regiment, the Col. Was a cousin and the Lieut. Was her father. She signed her name "A Rebel".