Former State Representative, District 72

Steve McDaniel represented District 72 in the Tennessee House of Representatives. This district includes Henderson, Chester and parts of Decatur and Wayne counties. He attended Jackson State Community College and is a graduate of the University of Memphis. During his career he has served as Deputy Speaker and Assistant Majority Leader of the State House of Representatives. Representative McDaniel was instrumental in the Sons of Confederate Veterans obtaining the vehicle license tags that we enjoy today. He was a driving force in establishing the Historical Preservation Act. He was the main sponsor of the bill that established Parker's Crossroads Battlefield Park.

Representative McDaniel is the Historian of Parker's Crossroads Battlefield Association; Chair, Parker's Crossroads living history and reenactment; Member, John B. Ingram Sons of Confederate Veterans Camp 219; Member, National Rifle Association; City Manager, Parker's Crossroads and Member, Tennessee Civil War Preservation Association.

Make plans to join Camp 87 as we celebrate our Confederate Heritage with a night of fun and fellowship.

RESERVATIONS: Reservations are required and accepted via payment, only! Seating is limited. All reservations must be received by Wednesday, January 23, 2019.
